FOREWORD

In this, the second edition of THE BAGPIPE, we offer for your approval a brief sketch of that part of our college career just completed. We hope that we have made this book something which will be a source of pride and joy to you in the distant future years—some pleasant reminder of days now vividly etched on fresh memories—something which will represent all that you held near and dear during those destiny-shaping days at our beloved Alma Mater.

PRESIDENT R. GORDON MATHESON, JR.

To one whose untiring efforts and devotion to the task at hand have had a large part in making our school what it is today, this, the second volume of THE BAGPIPE is respectfully dedicated—to President R. Gordon Matheson, Jr.

ALMA MATER

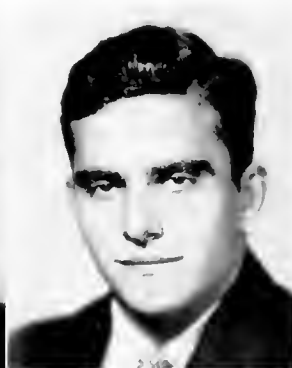

To thee, dear college, do we raise
Our voices in acclaim,
And memories of yesterday
Shall cluster 'round thy name;
And as we sing our college song,
Unfurl the banners free,
Revealing liberty and truth,
Forever, P. J. C.

FRESHMAN CONCEIT

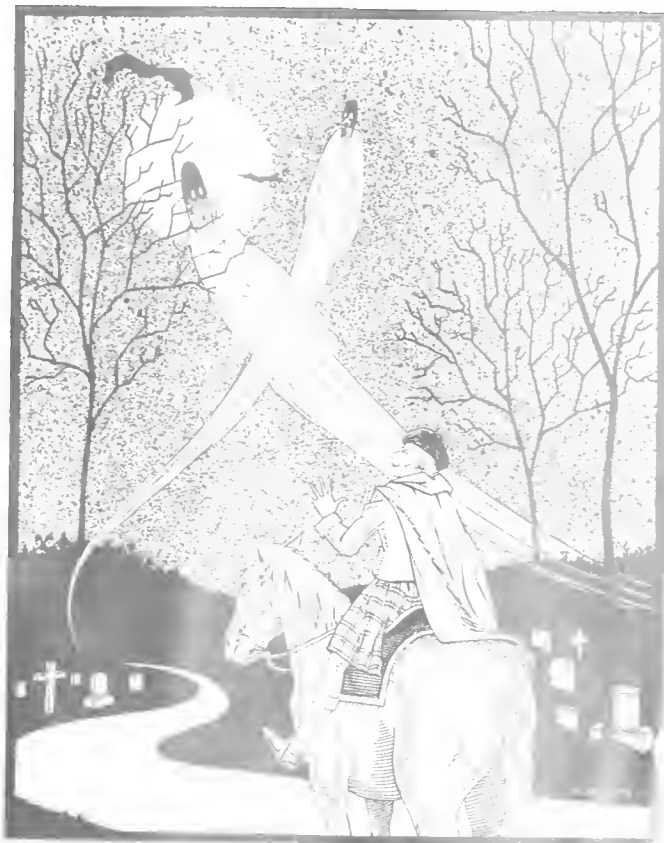

Don't think that we Freshmen don't play an important part in the activities of this school, for we have certainly helped put P. J. C. on the map. First of all, there are more Freshmen here this year than there have ever been before. Seventy-eight Freshmen have registered, making an increase of fifteen per cent over last year's enrollment. These Freshmen have not only registered, but have taken part in every school activity.

Who composes the Glee Club? The present Glee Club is the largest and best in the history of the school, and the Freshmen have largely made it so. Two-thirds of its members are Freshmen. The boxing team is almost entirely made up of Freshmen who have been successful in raising the athletic standard of P. J. C.

Another thing, we Freshmen introduced freshman cups into this school. This was done by our willingness, and the strict orders of the Sophomores.

We have been told that the school spirit has increased one hundred per cent over that of last year. School spirit is what makes a school, and with our interest and influence, this school next year will be a perfect one.

This year's student council has carried on the principle of government of the students by the students. The excellent spirit of cooperation which the student body has shown has made the student council's task a relatively light one. Slight infractions of the rules of the college were dealt with but no major misdemeanors ruffled the calm of campus life. At the present time the student council is responsible for most phases of student behavior, and its decisions are backed and upheld by the faculty discipline committee, final authority and jurisdiction in certain types of cases of course being held by the faculty.

The Board of Control is the student organization for dealing with minor infractions of campus discipline and class custom. Its authority is fully authorized by the student council; and while its scope is fairly limited, yet it forms a not unimportant factor in the orientation and primary instruction of freshmen and newcomers, and in promoting general discipline on the campus and off.

The primary element in a man's education is his decision as to his life's work. This year the Y. M. C. A. has endeavored to put this element in the forefront of every student's mind by presenting a series of attractively arranged lectures on vocational guidance, by prominent men in various of the leading professions. It is the earnest prayer of this organization that these lectures may be of some practical value to the student body. The usual evangelistic service was held during the latter part of March, the Rev. D. P. McGeachy, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church in Monroe conducting the services.

HOLLAND

Under Coach R. C. "Dutch" Holland, P. J. C. enjoyed in '33 its most successful football season to date. Starting the year with what looked like woefully inadequate material, Holland turned out a squad which registered wins over Belmont Abbey, Mt. Park and E. C. T. C., and held the Boiling Springs champions to a single tally. Team spirit was excellent, and both the squad and its coach are to be highly commended on their work.

DON WILLIAMSON, Half (Captain)

As captain of this year's team, Don was a real leader. His speed counted for many gains on wide end sweeps. His defense, especially against passes, was excellent.

BARDEN, Center

Heywood at center was our star linesman a clean fighter and the outstanding player on the team. His merit was justly recognized by placement on the All-State Junior College selection.

NORTHROP, Full

The boy who came back and made good. You could usually count on Dan for that last yard to goal or first down.

RUSSELL, Tackle

Russell developed this season into a capable tackle and was one of the stalwarts of a light line.

FOOTBALL

FAIRCLOTH, Quarterback

Shifting from full to quarter in midseason, Turk proved to be a heady field general. He was a fighter all through, and knew how to get the most out of his team.

WICKER, Tackle

Mac, the recruit of the trio of big tackles, took his place with the others and delivered the goods. He will be a mainstay of the line next year.

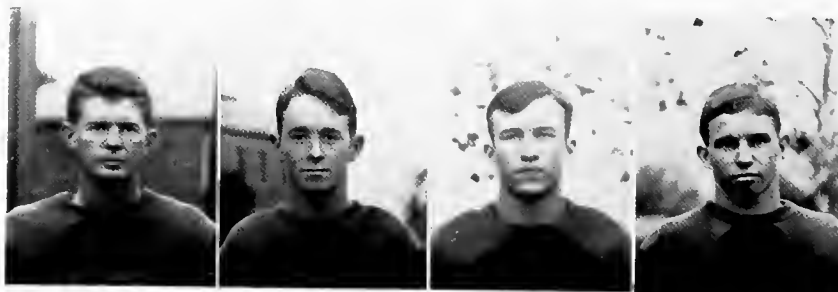

BETHUNE, Halfback

Bethune was a versatile half whose passing, receiving, and running made him a dangerous man on any field.

BEVERLY, End

Beverly was an outstanding end who proved very valuable. His pass receiving was excellent and he responded splendidly when called from end to punt.

WATSON, Tackle

Jim paired with Russell to give us another dependable tackle. Off-tackle smashes got smashed when attempted over his position.

CONDER, Guard

Weighing only 130 pounds proved to be no handicap to Frank. He played regularly in his opponents' backfield and was considered just plain poison.

MCLEAN, End

Roger was the big end who developed into a real fighter and a dependable player. His weight and size were of great value in every game.

FORDE, Halfback

Jack was the midget of the squad, but hard as nails and fast as a streak. His punt returns were a feature of the season, and his 85-yard jaunt against Belmont Abbey won the game for his team.

FOOTBALL

MURRAY, Guard

Eli was a cool, steady player. Opposing backfields found it tough sledging by his guard post.

BARRETT, End

Harry was a hard worker who made up in fight and spirit what he lacked in weight and size.

BARFIELD, Guard

Barfield was our most dependable linesman, as shown by the fact that he played six games and a half without substitution. He was right in there for all he was worth every minute.

BENTON, Fullback

Benton's tremendous drive tore opposing lines open on power plays. His punting and accurate passing were a feature of every game he played.

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Seated: Northrop, Williamson, Russell (Captain), Yearwood, Proctor.
Standing: Howe (Manager), Everett, Faircloth, Tolar, Bethune.

BASKETBALL

Playing a regular junior college schedule for the first time this year, the basketball team did not make such a great record as far as number of games won goes. But the new gymnasium offered for the first time a regular playing court; and under Coach Holland the squad, led by four lettermen of last year—Captain Russell, Williamson, Northrop, Faircloth, and Tolar—a reserve—encountered several strong teams. Among these were Wingate, Campbell, Belmont Abbey, Oak Ridge, Davidson Frosh, and several All-Star quints. The team also entered the junior college tournament at Winston-Salem.

BASEBALL SQUAD

First row: Turbeville, McDonald, Watson, Jackson, Forde, Faircloth, Yearwood, Murray.

Second row: Coach Henderson, Williamson, Russell, Bethune, Beverly, Smith, Dula, Malloy (Assistant Manager).

BASEBALL

At this writing, prospects for a really successful baseball team are very good. With Captain Faircloth on second, Don Williamson at short, A. C. Jackson in left field and Russell, a lefty hurler, returning, Coach Henderson had a good start on his nine. Newcomers to the pitching staff were George Turbeville, erstwhile ace of the Interstate League, and Jack Forde, Rogers behind the plate, Beverly on first, and Yearwood on third comprise the rest of a fast-working infield, while Bethune, Jackson and McDonald make up one of the best outfields in the conference.

Out of six starts to date, the team has lost only one—a 7-6 thriller with Campbell College. Turbeville allowed only 7 hits while he and his mates collected 13 off Fowler, but Campbell got the benefit of a beautiful triple out, a double out, and several unearned runs to win. E. C. T. C. was downed in a two-game series, 15-4 and 10-2, while decisive wins were registered over Rowland and Fairmont All-Stars and over Rockingham High. The team, led by the stick work of Turk Faircloth, has averaged around 11 hits per game, while fielding has been excellent. Games are scheduled with Oak Ridge, E. C. T. C., Campbell, Wingate, Belmont Abbey, and Boiling Springs.

BOXING SQUAD

First row: Ferrene (Coach), Forde, Hulcher (Captain), Cashion, Evans.

Second row: Dula, Barwick, Mobley, McLean.

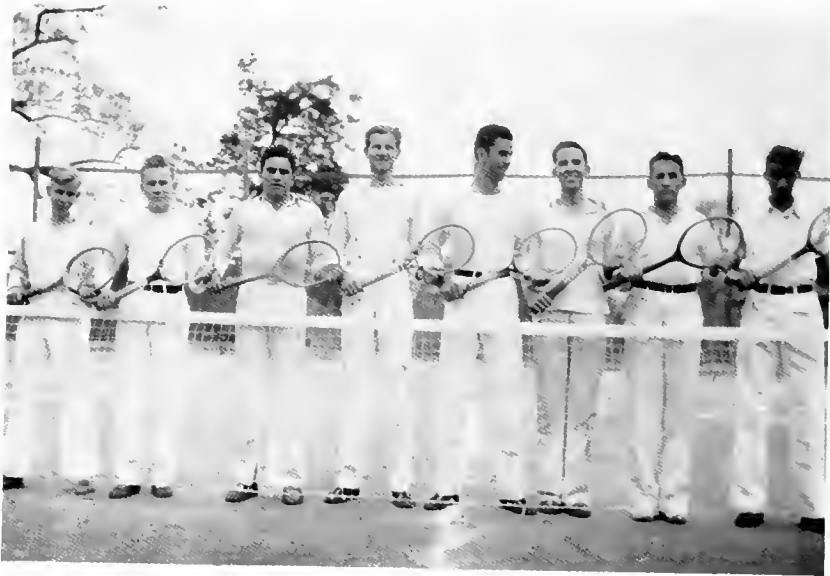

Third row: Smith (Assistant Manager), Council (Manager), Ogilvie (Assistant Manager).

BOXING

Although the youngest sport in the athletic program except tennis, the boxing team turned in the best record of any team to represent P. J. C. in the past two years. Coach Ferrene had a very green bunch of material to start with, but he put out a squad which lost only to Oak Ridge, and that largely because for lack of fighters in the heavier weights, several bouts had to be forfeited.

Of six men entered in the Golden Gloves Tournament in Charlotte, two men—Hulcher and Dula, both welters, went to the quarter-finals, while Jack Forde, a scrappy bantamweight, was eliminated in the semi-finals only by the champion of his division.

With only one man to be lost by graduation this year, prospects for next season are very bright.

TENNIS TEAM

TENNIS

Tennis is another minor sport which has made good at P. J. C. The team last year more than broke even in the first season of intercollegiate competition with two wins and a draw out of four junior college matches. Dan Northrop, number two ranking player, went undefeated throughout the entire season.

With Smith, Northrop, and Cross, last year's ranking one, two and four players, and with a squad of strong replacements, the team is looking forward to an even more successful season this year. Matches are arranged to run parallel with the baseball schedule, thus insuring a full quota of engagements.
